

The Trinity Jazz Orchestra

The twenty-piece Trinity Jazz Orchestra is the cornerstone of the Trinity Music Group, Inc., a 501c3 non-profit corporation whose mission is to promote, preserve and perform the Jazz music art form. As versatile as the other groups of the organization, TJO is just as comfortable on the dance floor, cruise ship or church as it is on the concert stage or in a school setting. TJO specializes in first-rate, professional-quality big band jazz of both the Christian and secular nature. As the region's only professional, nonprofit, repertory big band, TJO has shared the stage with the likes of World-renown saxophonist,

Grammy- Award nominee, and Sony Jazz Artist of the Year, Karolina Strassmayer; Clarence Banks, Grammy-award winning trombonist with the Count Basie Orchestra; internationally recognized Gospel vocalist Dave Boyer; Chase Sanborn, Toronto-based trumpeter and jazz educator; Sarah Morrow, acclaimed trombonist based in Paris; Ralph Lalama, grammy-winning Tenor Saxophonist; Dave Lalama, pianist and composer; Nicole Pasternak, New York based vocalist; Jim Pugh, world-renowned trombone player and educator; Etta Cox, renowned vocalist, actor and educator; Rick Simerly, trombonist and acclaimed educator; Wayne Bergeron, Concord recording artist and famed trumpeter, as well as a host of other prominent professional musicians from the tri-state region. TJO specializes in the best music as it was performed by the best big bands. TJO's library is comprised of original charts by Stan Kenton, Buddy Rich, Ralph Carmichael, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Woody Herman, as well as contemporary charts by Dave Lalama, Bob Florence, Tom Kubis, and Gordon Goodwin, as well as many others.
